Section 4

Statement regarding meeting procedure and voters' rights for an Extraordinary General Meeting.

1. The Regulations* define who is entitled to vote at a meeting of the body corporate.
2. The Regulations** set out how a person can vote at a meeting of the body corporate.
3. A notice is enclosed for a corporate owner to appoint a company nominee to vote on its behalf.
4. A person cannot vote on a motion requiring an ordinary resolution or a special resolution, or in an election ballot, if a contribution, instalment, penalty or another amount associated with the ownership of a lot due to the body corporate has not been paid.
5. One vote only may be exercised for each lot in the scheme.
6. Where there are two or more co-owners of a lot, a vote by any one of the co-owners will be counted as the vote for the lot unless a contrary vote is cast by another co-owner in which case no vote will be counted for the lot.
7. A voter may request that a motion requiring an ordinary resolution be determined by a poll of the Contribution Schedule lot entitlements of voters, instead of on the basis of one vote for each lot. The request may be made in writing beside the motion where it appears on the Voting Paper, or personally at the meeting by the owner or the owner's proxy.

Notes

- * See for example Sections 83 and 84 of the Standard Module Regulation.
- ** See for example Section 86 of the Standard Module Regulation which provides that a person may vote in any of the following ways on a motion, other than a motion to be decided by secret ballot -
- in person at the meeting.
  - in writing, by completing a 'Voting Paper' and giving it to the Secretary at the address shown on the first page.
  - by appointing a proxy to vote on the person's behalf.
  - by casting an electronic vote (if allowed by the body corporate) in accordance with the Electronic Transactions (Queensland) Act 2001 and in accordance with any instructions accompanying the voting paper.
